

SmallWorld

Author (s): Lauren McMillen & Junior Garcia

Date: 4/27

Version: 1

USE CASE NAME:	Publish Profile	USE CASE TYPE Business Requirements: <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
USE CASE ID:
PRIORITY:	High
PRIMARY BUSINESS ACTOR:	Student, mentors
OTHER PARTICIPATING ACTORS:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> SmallWorld Staff (to monitor the overall quality of profiles)
OTHER INTERESTED STAKEHOLDERS:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Donors (who want to see the results of SmallWorld teams)
SHORT DESCRIPTION:	Mentors submit the final form of the Team's Profile to be displayed on the public platform.
PRE-CONDITION:	All tasks are submitted, and all 5 Steps are complete.
TRIGGER:	Student completes last task on final step in WorkBase.
TYPICAL COURSE OF EVENTS:	Actor Action	System Response
	Step 1: Mentor clicks « Submit Profile to Public Platform »	Step 2: System prompts Mentor to double-check that the profile is correct and complete, as the team cannot change it after submission.
	Step 3: Mentor confirms publishing command.	Step 4: Profile is displayed on the public platform.
ALTERNATE COURSES:

CONCLUSION:	The process concludes when the mentor clicks « publish » profile.
POST-CONDITION:	The profile is displayed on the public platform for all users to access.
BUSINESS RULES:	The profile will be used to assess the team's work and make them eligible for awards and scholarships.
IMPLEMENTATION CONSTRAINTS AND SPECIFICATIONS:	The team cannot change the profile after it is published.
ASSUMPTIONS:	The profile is complete once it is submitted.
OPEN ISSUES:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> Should the system allow the team to make changes to the profile after official submission?